The Art of Participatory Leadership

"How to focus our personal energies to move forward in a common direction?"

<http://www.aopleadership.org>

Join this innovative event which is a 3-day training, particular local face of the Art of Hosting.

It is designed to help you:

Learn simple, yet powerful processes that build a successful team and community

Foster individual and collaborative leadership
practices

Activate the collective and individual intelligence

Over 3 days there will be the opportunity to participate and practice the hosting of conversations that address most of the complex challenges of our community.

Which are the civilised ways to involve and engage different points of community views in one discussion?

Through meaningful conversations we discover our energy and focus it on working towards a common direction!

The Art of Participatory Leadership will provide you the opportunity to find solutions in problem situations with:

- ✓ business setting
- ✓ social activities and communities
- ✓ policy and strategy development
- ✓ everyday life and family

The Art of Participatory Leadership is for each and every person interested in making a change. Managers, consultants, facilitators, trainers, teachers, social innovators, young leaders, youth organizations activists can discover for themselves useful and productive solutions.

You are more than welcome to join us and connect with other open-minded people, entrepreneurs and innovators in Bulgaria.
